Value Of Red Cross Told By WAC

Mrs. Henry Bahnsen, of Cotati has received a most interesting letter from her sister Pfc Paula

Pfc Paula Curnow

Curnow, a WAC stationed somewhere in England.

Pfc Curnow writes enthusiastically of the work of the Red Cross, "There are ever so many Red Cross clubs available," she writes, "very similar to the USO in the states. Really you have no idea what this organization is doing. One must see the work to appreciate it. You in the states do not realize what the Red Cross is doing in the way of entertainment, relief, and in fact supplying every possible need. I must admit I had never fully realized the full value of this organization until just recently. And the work couldn't be better done."

The writer, whose home address is 130 Oak street, Cotati, left here January 9, 1943, reporting in Florida for induction. Later she was sent to Louisiana, then to Fort Devens, Massachusetts and in September was sent overseas.

The letter received by Mrs. Bahnsen was a typewritten V-mail letter and although only 3¼ by 3½ inches contained over 550 words.
